

Your stay with us supports sustainable, conservation-based local income, helping to protect critical wildlife habitats, with the goal of conserving mountain gorilla populations.

For information or reservations, please contact us:
guesthouse@sahaya.org
www.sahaya-uganda.org/guesthouse

We are happy to help to connect you with trusted guides and local activities that support women and youth in conservation-compatible livelihoods.

Gorilla trekking • Hiking in Bwindi Impenetrable NP • Birding
• Arts– youth and reformed poachers painting and sketching, custom sewing, wood crafts • Batwa dancing and cultural visit • Mothers in Motion basket weaving

Sahaya International serves as a fiscal agent to accept tax-deductible donations in the USA for programs at Bwindi. We partner closely with the education organization, Photography Inspiring Children in Conservation. Both organizations are 501(c)3 nonprofits.

• www.sahaya.org • PhotographyInspiringConservation.org

Sahaya Guesthouse

Buhoma-Bwindi, Uganda

www.sahaya-uganda.org/guesthouse

The Sahaya Guesthouse

Community-based conservation through education and empowerment

Adjacent to the Bwindi Impenetrable National Park

www.sahaya-uganda.org/guesthouse

Bwindi Impenetrable National Park

Comfortable • Quiet • Private

Incredible wildlife viewing from the Guesthouse, or a 10 min walk to begin your gorilla trek

Generous servings of delicious and locally grown food and abundant clean water

Endangered Mountain Gorillas,
Rwenzori Double-collared sunbird
Endangered L'hoest monkey
(PC: Kathy West 2022)